SYNOPSIS

Cheri has the life every college student wants — a close family, a bright future, and a mother, Breanna, who has fought hard to give her both. But the past has a long memory.

When Cheri strikes up a friendship with the magnetic, volatile Madison, she has no idea the two of them are already connected — by a night, years ago, that Breanna has spent a lifetime trying to bury. As Madison pulls Cheri deeper into her orbit, someone begins circling the family: watching, threatening, closing in. By the time Cheri understands who the stalker really is — and what they want — the truth about her mother's past is already at the door.

Shot entirely on location in Kansas City, MY CHERIE AMOUR is a slow-burn suspense thriller about the secrets parents keep, the debts that come due, and how far a family will go to protect its own.

PRODUCTION NOTES

MY CHERIE AMOUR was produced independently by AGA Productions and shot entirely on location in Kansas City, Missouri, with a local cast and crew. The film premiered to a packed hometown audience in Kansas City before its streaming release through Indie Rights.

The end titles feature "The Hunger" by French synthwave artist YOTA, released on New Retro Wave Records — a collaboration that bridges the film's Kansas City roots with the international retrowave scene.
